Ad Dropout Policy

To maintain the advertising integrity of Seedstock EDGE, the late ad drop policy developed by the NSR Executive Committee will be upheld by the NSR Department of Marketing & Communications. If an advertiser reserves advertising space in Seedstock EDGE, he or she has until three days after the ad deadline to recall the advertising space. If an ad is pulled after that time, the late ad drop policy will apply. On the first occurrence, the advertiser will receive a written explanation of the policy. On any following occurrences, the advertiser will be charged half the cost of the reserved ad space.

CEO, National Swine Registry

For the members, by the members

The National Swine Registry will begin its 20th year of existence in July. The American Yorkshire Club, the Hampshire Swine Registry and the United Duroc Swine Registry joined forces under one roof in West Lafayette, Ind., on July 1, 1994. The American Landrace Association became a member of the National Swine Registry in 1998.

This is recognized as one of the most notable events in the purebred livestock world, due to the foresight of the boards of directors from four separate purebred swine associations to put their members first by providing one home for their registrations, genetic evaluations, advertising needs and avenues to exhibit and merchandise their genetic programs.

Now, this sounds like a pretty simple plan, but we are all human, and the first thing we want to do is to protect our ‘turf’ – in this case, our respective breeds. As the first meetings of the newly elected NSR Executive Committee were held, one of the policies put in place was the “Super Majority” rule. This policy stated that if all three of one breeds’ representatives voted against a motion, it would not be allowed to pass. During this time, the NSR staff was charged with breaking down ad content. For example, if there were two Duroc photos, one Yorkshire photo and one Hampshire photo used in an ad, 50 percent of the ad revenue was allocated for the Durocs, 25 percent for the Yorkshires and 25 percent for the Hampshires. And if a special project was presented by a breed, that breed was held responsible for the costs.

I remember the day Jack Rodibaugh, noted breeder and one of the biggest supporters of the formation of NSR, said if a program or project would benefit the members of one of our breeds, it would benefit the members of the other breeds. I feel this was the turning point in how business was conducted at NSR – the Super Majority policy was removed. Now, when business is conducted during the NSR Executive

“When business is conducted during the NSR Executive Committee meetings, committee members’ actions show they are committed to doing what is right for the entire NSR membership.”

Committee meetings, committee members’ actions show they are committed to doing what is right for the entire NSR membership.

This year, the NSR Annual Meeting will be held Tuesday, March 19, at the Four Points by Sheraton Hotel in West Lafayette, Ind. It begins at noon with a luncheon where the top recorders are recognized. At 1:30 p.m., the NSR Annual Membership Meeting will be held, followed by individual membership meetings for the Duroc, Hampshire, Landrace and Yorkshire breeds. I encourage all of you to participate in these meetings, if possible. Your input is important to the future success of NSR.

I want to recognize several board members and NSR Executive Committee members as their terms expire following the NSR Annual Membership meetings. First, Jim Grimm has served six years on the AYC board and the NSR Executive Committee. For the past two years, Jim chaired the executive committee and his leadership was much appreciated by this CEO. Terry Shaffer served six years as an world will be missed. Ron Iverson served six years on the HSR board and was recognized by his peers by being elected in 2012 to serve on the NSR Executive Committee. Carl Stein served six years as a UDSR board member and is currently serving his second term on the NSR Executive Committee.

With this said, I would like to welcome the newly elected and re-elected board members. Joe Roberts will be seated as a director on the UDSR board. Dusty Cain will be seated as director on the HSR board. Rachelle Bailey and Scott Lawrence were re-elected to their second term on the ALA board, and Dan Burzlaff along with Dr. Mike Tripp will be seated as directors on the AYC board.

If you cannot attend the NSR Annual Membership Meeting and have an item or issue that you would like placed on the agenda, please contact your respective breed board president or board member, or give me a call at the NSR office at 765.4363.3594, extension 107, or send me an e-mail at mike@nationalswine.com

Torie Schwartz
NSR Junior Activities Coordinator

Doing what I love, loving what I do

On Saturday, June 30, 2012, I pulled into the NSR office and prepared for the three-hour trip to Louisville, Ky., for the NSR Summer Spectacular with four people I knew little about. As I was getting out of my car and walking into the office, I had no idea what the future held for me – let alone what I was going to experience the rest of the week.

The car was packed full with luggage, supplies needed for the week and the whole crew – Cally Hass, Dr. Justin Fix, interns Ali Harwell and Corey Carpenter and myself. The trip was somewhat relaxing as we all talked and got to know each other. Little did I know, it was going to be a different story when we arrived.

Growing up an active American Junior Shorthorn Association (AJSA) member, serving on the board of directors for three years and being the Vice President for one of them, I was very familiar with national junior shows – or, so I thought! My past experiences serving on the Indiana Junior Beef Cattle Association Board of Directors helped me have a sense of what it took financially to put on a 1,500+ head show and ways to help fund it. So, I had an idea of how the NSR Summer Spectacular would be run. Although I wasn't going into this "blind," I still didn't realize how much I was going to learn.

Just like a lot of you reading this editorial, I have an absolute passion for exhibiting livestock. I am fortunate to have four older brothers and parents who share that same love. Since 1994, I had never missed a Shorthorn Junior National – until this past summer. I was that die-hard showman that did it all. I had the honor of serving as the National Shorthorn Lassie Queen and was fortunate enough to receive scholarships through the AJSA. At the National Junior Shorthorn Show, I participated in team sales, speech contest, art and crafts, herdsman quiz and my two favorite educational contests – showmanship and the judging contest. Of course, my favorite was still exhibiting and competing in the shows.

But looking back, I had no idea how much hard work and attention to detail it takes to put on a show the magnitude of the NSR Summer Spectacular. Like I mentioned, as an AJSA Junior Board member we had responsibilities – but as an exhibitor, these details do not always cross your mind. I never realized how much time and effort my advisors put into events such as these. While analyzing and taking in all of the information I could during the NSR Summer Spectacular and following Cally around (bless her heart for putting up with a shadow all week and trying to run a show), I realized this was going to take a lot of work and to be honest, I was scared. I even asked myself, "Can you take this on?"

By nature, I am a very driven and motivated person. When I do something, I truly want it to be the best. I love competition and challenges, just like competing in livestock judging contests. When I judged at Black Hawk East and Western Illinois University, judging was my life. When it came to a contest, I had this sense of confidence that came over me. It was not about beating the person in front of me in the reasons line, it was about doing my best and pulling through for my team.

When I was scared and unsure of myself during that week of the NSR Summer Spectacular, I had a pep talk with myself, like I did right before a judging contest. I told myself, "I can, and I will," because I knew I had a new team to work with and needed to do my part.

Seven months later, here I am. Although I still may be the "newbie," things are starting to get easier, and I now have a sense of "normality" in my life. It is still crazy to think, just seven months ago I was "thrown into the fire" at the NSR Summer Spectacular and doubted myself. But as I reminisce about that experience, it was the best thing that ever happened. It was a challenge I overcame, simply by taking the chance to learn, meet new people and most importantly, believing "I can, and I will." There's not a doubt in my mind now, and I am beyond thankful for this opportunity here with the NSR and NJSA. I am not one to talk about myself, but I am happy I had the opportunity to share this. I want all of you who took the time to read this to remember you can do anything you set your mind to. Like my Papa Joe always told me, everything in this life you do is based around your attitude and perceptions. I am truly lucky that I can say I am doing what I love, and loving what I do.

Jen Gillespie

Director of Marketing & Communications

Looking back

Just a year ago at this time, I sat in my new office in West Lafayette, Ind., writing my first editorial for Seedstock EDGE. It was the big Showpig issue, and I had no idea what the weeks and months ahead had in store for me. Now, I sit writing my last editorial, which is undoubtedly bittersweet.

I could not have asked for a better start to my career. NSR took a leap of faith when they hired a young graduate out of Oklahoma State with very little background in the purebred swine industry to lead the Marketing & Communications Department. I, in turn, trusted my gut as I packed my bags and moved more than 600 miles from home to start my career in state I'd previously only driven through, in a town where I knew no one.

I have learned more in the past year than I could have ever imagined. I have met people and made friends who, I hope, will be a part of my life for many years to come. But above all, I have had one thing solidified in my mind – there is no better life than one made in the livestock industry.

Honing in on a certain “topic” for this editorial was a struggle for me. It is one of those times when words can scarcely do justice. In hopes of inspiration, I started reading through my past editorials and realized that they sum up my thoughts better than anything else could. So – the following is a reflection of the sentiments I have shared in the past 12 months and how they apply not only now, but throughout life in general.

#1 – Take risks and embrace the unexpected. Things don't always go “as planned,” and that's OK – we adjust and adapt. I did not foresee the opportunities that were presented to me and led to my decision to take a chance with a new career – just as the members and staff of NSR did not likely expect the timing of my resignation. However, I truly believe that beyond the initial adjustments that have to be made, there is great opportunity on both sides of these unexpected events. A door has opened for me to take the next step both personally and professionally, as one has opened for NSR to seek the next addition to the team, who will bring new talents and ideas to the table.

#2 – Attitude isn't everything – but it sure does make a difference. Even in tough situations, a good attitude can take you a long way – and beyond that, optimism is contagious. Pass it on.

#3 – It's the people, not the pigs, that make this industry special. We all love good show stock. If we didn't, we wouldn't be doing what we do. Every breeder wants to breed, raise, sell or show the next “great one.” But at the end of the day, it's those around us – on the farm, at the shows and in the office – that truly matter. I've learned this not only through my own experiences, but through the stories I have written for this magazine. In each one, there is a common theme – one of friendships made and mentors who have changed the lives and paths of even the greatest names in our industry.

#4 – Being “raised in a barn” is not an insult, but rather one of the greatest privileges each of us has been granted. In fact, this concept was the inspiration for the column you see on the next page. Something I believe inspires all of us in what we do on a day-to-day basis is seeing the next generation grow up learning the values taught in the livestock industry. Let's make sure we all do our part in protecting the integrity of this industry, so the next generations may continue to learn from and enjoy the benefits of being raised in a barn.

#5 – A life in agriculture isn't necessarily a “fairytale” – yet for those of us in it, we are truly living our dream. And in spite of inherent obstacles and tough realities that are a part of the agricultural lifestyle, we should never give up on that dream.

#6 – Count your blessings. This is one that, perhaps, we do not do enough. I have been blessed beyond words and, you can bet, I count my time at NSR – and all of you – among those.

I want to thank each of you, from the bottom of my heart, for letting this girl from the middle-of-nowhere Kansas be a part of what you do. You have made a tremendous impact on my life in many ways you may never know. And cliché as it may be, I believe in these words: We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere.

Randy Joseph
Morris
1963-2012

Randy Joseph Morris

Randy Joseph Morris, 49, of Albert Lea, Minn., passed away Dec. 29, 2012, as a result of a fatal head-on automobile accident in route to visit family in Arizona.

Morris was born to Kenneth and Verlie (Ernster) Morris on June 23, 1963, in Denver, Colo. He graduated from Owatonna High School in 1981 and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in animal science from the University of Minnesota – St. Paul. After graduating, Morris took a job with Land O'Lakes, Inc., and worked in swine nutrition for 26 years. Most recently, he worked in conjunction with Northern Country Feeds in Adams, Minn., managing their feed sales division.

An avid livestock enthusiast, Morris counted the swine industry as one of his life's truest passions. He was on the livestock judging team at the University of Minnesota and went on to own his own showpig operation. Through his passion for livestock, he positively impacted the lives of countless young people and will leave a legacy in the Minnesota livestock industry.

Morris was married to his wife, Leanne (Walter), for 29 years and will be remembered as a devoted husband and father. On April 14, 1987, Randy and Leanne welcomed their only child, Justin Morris, into the world. Morris cherished the relationship he had with his son as they enjoyed a mutual passion for family, livestock and sports. Those who knew Morris will remember him for his honesty, integrity and work ethic, but most importantly, he always put family first. His infectious smile and unique sense of humor will be dearly missed.

Morris is survived by his wife, Leanne; son, Justin; father, Kenneth; sister, Renee Hacker; sisters and brothers-in-law Paul and Ann Walter, Cindy and Michael Schubert, Joe and Teresa Bartholomew, Shawn and Kathy Davis, and Brad and Tara Walter; along with many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Verlie; grandparents, George and Mary Morris and Otto and Mary Ernster.

Leon John
Koziolk
1933-2012

Leon John Koziolk

Leon John Koziolk, 79, of Freeborn/Hartland, Minn., died Sunday, Dec. 30, 2012, surrounded by family at his home.

Koziolk, the son of Alexander T. and Emily (Hassing) Koziolk, was born June 28, 1933, in Carlston Township, Freeborn County, Minn. He lived in the Freeborn area most of his life and attended District 98 School near the family farm. Koziolk was an active member of FFA and graduated from Freeborn High School in 1951.

He was united in marriage to Kathleen Halloran on Nov. 28, 1964, in Santa Ana, Calif.

As a young farmer, Koziolk was one of the charter founders of Minnesota Pork Producers in 1966, and he served as state vice president when it was called Swine Growers Council. He was the first county president of Freeborn County Pork Producers and a director for Farm Credit (now AgStar). His family was named Freeborn County Farm Family of the Year in 1992, and they were honored as 4-H Adult Leaders of the County in 1993. Koziolk was an adult leader for more than 15 years. In 1999, his family was named Minnesota Pork Producers of the year.

Koziolk started a purebred Duroc herd with his father while he was in high school, and he was active in the United Duroc Swine Registry. He later continued with a SPF herd and was Minnesota State President of that association. In 1976, they moved to the current farm where he raised hogs until his last illness. He was a 50-year plus member of Knights of Columbus, taught religious education classes and was Eucharistic minister at All Saints Church in New Richland. He was a supporter and promoter of many church and community activities. Koziolk coached summer softball and baseball teams. He was very proud of his children and grandchildren and their accomplishments, and he loved spending time with his friends and family.

He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Kathleen (Katie); daughter, Martha Flanick; sons, Stefan (Maureen), Toby (Donna), Paul (Lynn) and Terrence (Tracey); grandchildren, Amanda Wright, Kristine Wright and Tiffany Flanick, Nicholas, Craig and Cassandra Koziolk, Gage Flatness, Ryley and Sydney Koziolk, Megan, Ben, Samantha and Anthony J. Koziolk; brother, Francis (Margaret) Koziolk; sisters, Evelyn (Verle) Nickerson, Anita (Tom) Wilharm and Rosemary (Dan) Heins; brothers-in-law, Terrence (Elizabeth) Halloran, Donald (Ildi) Halloran and Dennis (Leslie) Halloran; sisters-in-law, Letty (Rob) Flatt, Mary Thoen, Jane Halloran, Theresa Halloran and Jennifer Koziolk; and numerous Koziolk, Hassing and Langer cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Jane (Don) Czerwonka; brother, Alex Jr.; and brother-in-law, Michael Halloran.

A memorial Mass was held at St. Casimir Catholic Church in Wells. The Rev. Thomas Niehaus officiated. The family prefers memorials to the Diabetes Association or Kidney Foundation.

Living Legend

$225,000 World record selling boar

Designed by Seedstock
EDGE

(MONSTER PIPE X HOT SHOT 125-3 X SUPER MONSTER X GERONIMO'S SISTER)

Stress Negative We felt that this boar was so special from the aspect of true stoutness of structure. Most believe structure refers to bone size or circumference of bone. But true structure refers to the makeup of bone, skeleton, muscle and skull. Living Legend is one of the stoutest-structured sires you'll see anywhere, with unique extension of front end and unbelievable attractiveness. He's extremely square from his blade and hip to the ground with unparalleled based-width. This boar has muscle to burn with a great rib cage that's deep and broad. We believe that his siring ability will be like no other - pedigree, pedigree, pedigree! Call 1.888.486.7288 to book semen.

This is Part II of a four-part series focusing on the influence a foundation female can have, not only within a single herd, but within a breed.

Love at first sight. That's how Mark Long of Lebanon, Ohio, describes the first time he saw CDO7 H Jane 44-2 at Chuck and Ben Olsen's spring sale in 2007. When he hooked up his trailer that April and headed for South Dakota, hauling home a belted gilt that would go down in the history of the Hampshire breed was one of the last things he expected.

"I went there looking for a Yorkshire," Long recalls. "I'd always liked Hampshires, but I hadn't had much luck with them in the past. But when I saw her – she was everything I thought a gilt should be, regardless of her color. She just fit exactly what I was looking for."

This gilt came from a line of productivity. She was sired by CDO5 Black Oak 85-6 and was out of a Southern Style sow. She had one full sister that was named Champion Gilt and topped the 2007 Southwest Type Conference sale at $4,900, and another that sold for $5,700 as a bred gilt. Olsens also kept a littermate sister that produced a long line of high-selling females. But none compared to the prolific 44-2 – known as the "Black Oak" sow.

Ben Olsen remembers his dad urging Long to take a look at the February-born Hamp gilt.

"She was a great-looking, stout, moderate gilt with good muscle shape," Olsen says. "But my dad thought the most important thing was she was balanced, complete and correct – that's what allowed her to be so successful when she was mated to all the different boars."

In her first litter, 44-2 produced the Grand and Reserve Champion Boars at the 2008 Summer Type Conference – one was Judgment Day, purchased by Hi Point Genetics and Heimer Hampshires, and the other was Hung Jury, purchased by Swine Genetics International. Hi Point also purchased their notable boar, Long Time Coming, out of 44-2's last litter. These three boars sired a string of champions in the show ring that is nearly unparalleled and generated females that are still breeding on.

But the Black Oak sow didn't just make boars – she produced an equally impactful set of daughters, the most notable of those coming out of her 18-litter mating to the popular 2008 Indiana State Fair boar, Unreal.

"Sows out of that mating (44-2 and Unreal) are the foundation of three or four different breeders' herds," says Mike Miller, sales manager at Hi Point.

One of those breeders is Jesse Heimer, who says he was lucky enough to purchase one of the 18-litter gilts.

"That was one of the best Hampshire litters I've ever laid my eyes on," he says.

Homeboy came out of Heimer's 44-2 daughter, and he is now compiling an impressive track record as showpig sire. Heimer calls 18-14 the most influential sow in his herd.

"It's an extremely prolific line of Hampshires," he says. "The more times I can get 44-2 in the pedigree, the better it gets."

When Long bought 44-2, he says he'd never spent that much money on a pig. But as it turns out, when it comes to love – there's no price too high.

a big hand in this sow's success.

"Mark was the lucky one to take her home – from there, he got it done," Olsen says. "He mated her to the right boars and cared for those pigs so they could reach their full potential."

Long's success went beyond making sound breeding decisions. It took patience and a willingness to do something that can often be difficult for breeders to do – retaining the top end.

"Mark has been steadfast in his commitment to keeping the best females," Heimer says. "It didn't matter if it was 44-2's direct daughters or her granddaughters – he was committed to keeping the very best. And if you're not willing to keep your best, it's really hard to make progress."

This commitment to bettering not only his own herd, but the entire belted breed, has earned Long a reputation among breeders and boar studs alike.

"We get calls about boars all the time," Miller says. "But when Mark

"It's an extremely prolific line of Hampshires. The more times I can get 44-2 in the pedigree, the better it gets." – Jesse Heimer

"She only weighed about 60 pounds at the time," he recalls. "I didn't tell my wife I spent $4,400 for a pig, but when she was doing the taxes that year, she found the bill and asked if I'd really spent that much money. But I was just in love with her."

And what a wise investment love was.

There is little doubt that 44-2 was a natural-born foundation female. Perhaps most importantly, Long says, she was a very maternal Hampshire sow.

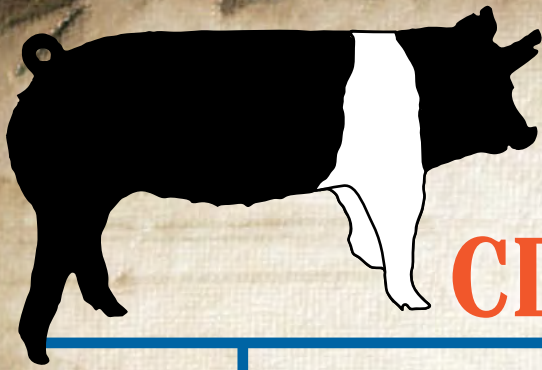

"She had pigs that could excel in the show ring, but also excel in the farrowing crate," he explains. "She never had a litter of less than 13 or 14 pigs, and her daughters and granddaughters have done the same. They have big litters, they milk, and they're just good mothers."

However, the breeder himself had calls and tells us he has a good one, we can trust him, and we're going to go take a look. We know those hogs will breed on ... We know we're getting something that will give our customers a tool to have success on their end."

Heimer, who says more than half of his belted sows have 44-2 in their pedigree, both recognizes and utilizes the success of these genetic lines.

"Female decedents of 44-2 are proven winners in the show ring, plus they perform in the crate. That's really hard to do. Her sons and grandsons have won barrow shows, but the very best of them have stayed boars and have been prolific, productive and dominant sires no matter where they've been on stud or who has used them ... Her progeny have really done it all."

California Dreamin'

By Katie Maupin

Raising winners West Coast style isn't all that different from the Midwest – it still takes lots of hard work. In the case of Ottenwalter's Showpigs, it also takes a lot of help from the whole family and one great herdsman.

The Ottenwalter family gathers at daughter Cassie's wedding. It's one of the few times the whole family stopped working on their speciality rice farm, leveling business and showpig operation. At Ottenwalters everyone pitches in and each member of the family has their own role in the enterprises. Back (l-r): Mark, Sandy, Cassie, Crystal, Jarrett and Brandon

It's the final drive of the Indiana State Fair Crossbred Classic. Only two predominately black boars are in the ring, and the crowd looks on as judge Ben Moyer, Ohio, makes his final pick.

The scene isn't out of the ordinary for a crossbred boar drive. But both of these boars are sons of Shoot 'Em – littermates bred by Ottenwalter Showpigs of Colusa, Calif.

Not many breeders can say what it feels like to enter the ring of one of the most noted shows in the country after winning both divisions with a pair of littermates. Owner Mark Ottenwalter will tell you that presenting those two boars, along with his herdsman Russell Pedrett, was one of his proudest moments. And as records will tell you, it was the fourth year in a row that an Ottenwalter-bred boar entered the ring to vie for the champion title.

"We target Indiana as our main show, and with that much success there, we'd like to keep it going," Ottenwalter says. "But the thing that we're really proud of is the boars that we sell breed on – they're not just one shot wonders."

No one can argue that the Ottenwalters have produced some industry leading boars, but what some may not know is how much planning goes into making such an elite set cross boars, year after year.

Each year, Ottenwalter, his wife, Sandy, and Pedrett carefully plan their matings to produce such consistent results. They keep good records, and they do their homework. This year, the crew will travel more than 1,000 miles through the Midwest just looking at boars to breed their sows and gilts to this Spring.

Pedrett says the most rewarding part of his job as herdsman is watching all of this planning pay off.

"I always enjoy seeing the outcome of what we've done ... whether it is a different feeding program or buying a different boar," he says. "Just seeing the outcome of long-term plan – that's what keeps me interested, because you just get to come up with ideas and see how they work."

"... the thing that we're really proud of is the boars that we sell breed on – they're not just one shot wonders."

– Mark Ottenwalter

The Ottenwalters have a good idea what will work because they keep careful records. Each of their more than 100 females is tested for the stress gene, so they never breed a carrier to a carrier. Besides knowing the stress status, they make notes on each litter.

"We can look back and say that we bred 'X' boar to 'X' sow and it worked, or maybe we need to breed her to one with more of something or another,"

Ottenwalter says. "We do a lot of that."

With such thought placed in each of the 1,500 showpigs that Ottenwalters market annually, it's ironic that the beginning of the operation was more or less an accident – a junior project gone wild.

"My daughters started showing at the fair, and we decided – like any dummy – that we'd keep a couple as sows and breed them," Ottenwalter says. "And then it just got out of control."

Before they knew it, Ottenwalters were having a sale each spring and selling 70-80 head to local youth at their county fairgrounds. But four years ago, it became apparent that they couldn't continue to grow the showpig business on their own. They needed help, and they found Pedrett.

"He's been a blessing. He came in and made things a lot easier and helped us be successful," Ottenwalter says. "A lot of it fell on Sandy and I for starting Ottenwalter Showpigs, but he has taken it a long way."

Ottenwalter says that in many ways, Ottenwalter Showpigs was placed on the map because of Pedrett – he took their operation to the next level. Pedrett's eye for quality and marketing know-how Ottenwalter Showpigs has earned a reputation for producing elite crossbred herdsires. Ottenwalter has so much faith in his program and genetics, he often retains interest in and uses his own boars. Pictured above is the Grand Champion Crossbred Boar at the 2012 Indiana State Fair, known as Shooter, that Hi Point Genetics of Illinois purchased for $75,000.

helped the Ottenwalter name grow.

But according to Pedrett, it is Ottenwalter who deserves credit for the firm's success.

"His desire is what makes Ottenwalter Showpigs – when he wants something, he just does it," Pedrett says. "We have developed a big enough network of people and relationships that we'll talk to people and get new ideas, and he'll just go with it – so it has really been a driving factor in our continual improvement through the years."

But it's what the Ottenwalters learned from their other enterprises that helped them find success in the showpig industry.

The Ottenwalters have always believed in working hard and working together to get things done. In fact, everything they do is together. The family farms 3,800 acres of specialty rice and moves more than 1 million yards of dirt each year as part of their leveling and habitat restoration business.

Four out of Mark and Sandy's five children live within two miles of their home. And when rice harvest time rolls around, Sandy explains that out of the

The whole family pitches in on sale days. Ashley and Crystal prep the pigs before they hit the ring. Their granddaughters show off the offerings, and Cassie, Kristen and Sandy's mom clerk the sales.

Ottenwalters are known for wanting to keep their facilities on the cutting edge. One of their latest projects is an addition to the show barn that includes six boar feeding pens and a pig viewing arena. Herdsman Pedrett says Ottenwalter's continual push for improvement helps the operation reach for the next level.

five machines running into the wee hours – four of them are run by family. A family she likes to keep well fed.

Five nights a week, Sandy prepares a smorgasbord of dinner options to feed the crew after long days of work. It's not a social event, but rather a little gesture of appreciation for all of their hard work.

"We really are just a good, ol' fashioned farm," she says. "And that's the way we liked to raise our kids."

In many ways, it is the same way Ottenwalter was raised. His mother was his 4-H swine project leader, and now he is helping teach his grandchildren, who are just beginning to show, many of the same things she taught him.

"We have one [grandchild] in the ring now, and another one just starting," says Ottenwalter. "So watching them is just really rewarding."

Although Ottenwalter Showpigs continues to grow and change, the do-it-yourself attitude that founded the program has not.

And everyone contributes. Their boys run the leveling business and help clean out the pig barns, while their girls assist with farrowing and office work. The Ottenwalters' children, Brandon, Jarrett and Crystal, all run tractors during ground preparation and leveling and then run harvesters, while their other daughter, Cassie, learns the office side of the farming. Sandy even takes her turn in farrowing – often sleeping on the couch so she can check on their first parity gilts every couple of hours. Pedrett isn't the only outside help they have in the barns. His girlfriend, Amanda Wolf, lends a hand, literally, as one of the official Ottenwalter "pig-pullers." Even Ottenwalter contributes his culinary prowess to help make sales successful.

The Ottenwalter's new farrowing house has everyone very excited, especially Sandy who can be found sleeping on the couch before checking their gilts every couple of hours during their farrowing season.

During their February pig sale, he and his family made more than 100 of his famous Chile Colorado burritos to feed about 300 sale goers.

This personal family touch will not change, even as they move

Ottenwalter says his main goal for the future is simply to establish the stoutest set of females that he can assemble.

"We have a good set of females now, but they can always get better," Ottenwalter says. "As far as winning – you can't say I want to go out and win, you just have to build the best herd you can and hope everything clicks."

He knows that sometimes everything doesn't click, though. Ottenwalter feels one thing that makes this industry so challenging is dealing with the disappointment when it doesn't. He jokes that Murphy of Murphy's Law must have been a pig farmer, but the highlights of success or seeing a plan through keeps him going.

Pedrett sees Ottenwalter Showpigs continuing to move deeper into purebred circles.

"There are a lot of opportunities in purebreds," Pedrett says.

Not only are customers calling to request purebred prospects, but Ottenwalter and Pedrett are challenging themselves to put together purebred sires with the same success they've had in the crossbred circle.

The next generation of Ottenwalter genetics will join the approximately 1,500 showpigs they market from coast-to-coast annually. In the future, Ottenwalter hopes to continue to build their sow herd and enter more purebred circles.

Above all, Ottenwalter and Pedrett want to see their network of customers, breeders and exhibitors grow.

"Just continuing to grow these relationships we've built is more important than the success we've had showing pigs," Pedrett says. "I think we're more proud of that, actually."

THE MOST INNOVATIVE SHOW PIG TOP DRESS ON THE MARKET

Designed with the understanding of how today's competitive show pigs are fed!

MEET TWO OF THE MOST RECENT ADDITIONS TO SHOW-RITE'S EXTREMELY KNOWLEDGEABLE AND CUSTOMER SERVICE ORIENTED SALES TEAM.

Chad Day

Chad Day brings with him a vast knowledge of the show pig industry from breeding to the backdrop. Chad has had the opportunity to be involved with numerous families award-winning projects, from selection all the way through the feeding process utilizing Show-Rite products. Combine that with working for and with Dave Guyer for many years, his ability to provide top-notch advice in the cattle barn makes him a great fit to the team. Chad was a member of a great livestock judging team at Black Hawk, proving a well-rounded knowledge of all species. Although Chad's main focus geographically will be in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky, his success across the country will be an asset on a national level as well.

Josh Dildine

Josh Dildine is certainly no stranger to the show pig world. Josh's junior show career was second to none that included champions at Houston, American Royal and NAILE. Josh has been actively involved in his families business of locating show pigs and providing advice on feeding and fitting that have been successful on all levels of competition. Throw some banner winning show steers in the mix and Show-Rite has a great resource that will predominantly cover East Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas. No matter what level you show on or what your goals are, from show pigs to rabbits Josh can help you get the Show-Rite products that will get the most out of your projects with the upmost success.

Taking COVERAGE

By Katie Maupin

Protecting your investments
is good business
– no matter what type of business
you are in.
Swine producers have to invest in more than just real estate, equipment
and maintenance.
In many cases,
the future of their firm hangs in the balance of new genetics. Whether it's a boar that they're sure will breed on, or a set of gilts that will serve as a foundation – producers need to consider insuring their animals and
taking coverage.

The Seedstock EDGE staff visited with Marty Smith of Smith Sawyer & Smith, Inc., to learn everything producers should know about insuring their animals. After three decades in the business, Smith knows the intimate approach producers take when selecting their next generation of breeding pieces. While he understands that money cannot always replace the genetics lost, it can cushion the blow of losing such an investment. This is why Smith encourages producers to look into insuring their top animals.

“It’s a very simple program, but an integral part of protecting those breeding animals that are so important to your farm,” he says. “To some guys, that may mean a $1,000 animal and to others it is a $50,000 animal – but the value of each of those animals to the future of the farm is the same.”

TYPES OF COVERAGE

There are three main types of livestock insurance coverage: blanket, herd and individual.

Blanket coverage is likely included in your farm and ranch insurance policy. According to Smith, this is the way most people have their animals covered. This type of policy will cover livestock loss for fire, theft and vandalism – all of which are normally covered as part of your farm policy. However, it does not cover sudden death from illness, and any animal loss claims made will be assessed according to the market value rather than the breeding value of that animal, minus the deductible.

Herd coverage allows producers to insure a whole herd of animals, from beef or dairy cattle to a swine program. Smith says this can be a little more expensive and time consuming to put in place. Through this type of coverage, insurance agents and producers must figure the total worth of the herd and determine the average value of the animals.

Individual coverage is one of Smith’s specialties. This type of policy is designed for the special, more valuable animals producers own. Unlike the common blanket coverage included with farm policies, individual mortality programs insure animals against sudden death due to illness, in addition to the perils normally covered in farm policies.

“It covers death for any reason other than war,” Smith says. “Basically, that is the only exclusion. So if someone drops a bomb on your farm, that poor pig will not be covered.”

Aside from war, individual coverage picks up a lot of the risks that producers in the purebred swine industry face when buying elite seedstock including transportation, stress, illness and even animals fighting.

Individual coverage also allows producers to insure animals for a set “breeding value” rather than market value. Claims made under this type of policy are not subject to deductible.

“If the $20,000 boar that someone bought at Expo dies, regardless of if the producer purchased a 30-day policy or is on an annual term and regardless of where they may be on that term, they will get $20,000 back,” Smith explains.

WHAT DO I NEED?

For producers wanting to insure an individual animal, Smith says the process is straight forward.

In order to insure an animal, the insurance office needs: a value, signed application and valid health paper with identification of that animal.

Health papers can be obtained from a veterinarian of the producer’s choice. Applications will be filled out largely by the insurance office and will just need to be signed and returned by the producer. However, the value can be somewhat trickier.

If an animal was purchased, producers can use the bill of sale, results of the auction or the check they wrote for the purchase as proof of that animal's value. But if that animal was bred and owned by the individual who would like to insure it, Smith says the first step is then contacting the insurance office. In such cases at Smith Sawyer & Smith, Inc., Smith takes information about the animal from the producer and then consults breed representatives, fieldmen or trusted swine evaluators to help determine a value.

Although it is another small hoop to jump through to insure home-raised animals, establishing a value is still easily done, and done quite often.

"As long as we have a valid health paper, and we know the value, it's a pretty cut-and-dry, simple process," Smith says.

WHEN DOES IT TAKE EFFECT?

Most insurance policies are in effect as soon as the signed application is in-hand and officially sent through the company's system, according to Smith.

But after 30 years in the business, Smith knows there are certain times that producers need insurance, and need it now. That is why Smith Sawyer & Smith, Inc., ensures that policies purchased at the NSR events they attend are effective immediately. Smith can guarantee this immediate coverage because of a special binding authority that he requests from his parent company.

"If I'm at Expo, that animal is insured before it leaves the fairgrounds," he says.

Smith Sawyer & Smith, Inc., strives to have policies effective immediately in such cases, because they know that hauling animals across the country, especially in extreme temperatures, can put extreme stress on them.

Smith recommends asking when the policy will be in place, since different companies may have different terms, and insurance agents may not have binding authority to insure animals that are bred-and-owned or sold private treaty immediately.

WHAT SHOULD I ASK?

Besides double-checking when your policy will be in place, Smith says it is always best to ask if you have any questions about coverage.

Two common coverage misunderstandings that Smith deals with include coverage on bred gilts and animals that require surgery.

At Smith Sawyer & Smith, Inc., a bred gilt must be insured for 30 days before farrowing is covered. So if a producer purchases a gilt two weeks before she is due and insures her, she will be covered for the trip home, but not if she would die during farrowing.

Another coverage question that sometimes arises applies to animals needing to be under anesthesia for a medical procedure. Any time an animal is put under for a surgery, that animal will not be covered if it perishes during the surgery, unless the insurance company was previously informed and an endorsement of that procedure was added to the policy.

Smith stresses if it is in question, it is best to ask.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I HAVE A LOSS?

When the unthinkable happens, it is important to know what steps to take.

The first step is to contact your insurance agent so he or she can begin the claim process and inform the carrier or parent company.

Then, producers need to call their veterinarian. All animals will need to have a post-mortem examination for producers to collect their claim. The posting is conducted at the breeders expense, and the insurance company will provide the veterinarian with a form to sign saying they've conducted the examination and have positively identified the animal.

The last step is for producers to sign a proof of loss statement, also supplied by the insurance office.

"It's pretty simple," Smith says. "But those steps have to be done."

SHOW MOM

Monthly

By Katie Maupin

Denise Fecke

Bonfield, Illinois

Husband: J.R. Fecke

Children: Trey-17, • Cade-13

Proudest "Show Mom" Moment: It's hard to name just one, so I guess I'll have to say my first proud show mom moment. Trey won the barrow show at the state fair in 2006. It was his first year in 4-H, and his first "big" show. He was 11-years-old, but looked like he was 9. He was in the champion drive with his 264 pound cross barrow, and he weighed about 62 pounds (soaking wet) - by far the smallest kid out there. It seemed the audience couldn't take their eyes off my kid's pig, and I could hear whispers from the crowd, "who is that kid ... he can sure show a hog." It was then that I knew this was going to be the first of many hog shows to come.

Favorite Part of Being a "Show Mom": Well, it is definitely spending time with my boys and meeting other people with livestock. It's fun to share stories and ideas. Some of my best memories have been made at hog shows. I've often said that we need to have a hog show without the hogs - it would be much more enjoyable, but Trey and Cade think I'm crazy when I say that.

Items you'd never leave for a show without: We have a list that we have put together, and we don't leave until all of the items on the list are on the trailer. I always make sure we have a cooler and snacks. If you've seen Snickers' "you're not yourself when you're hungry" ads, then you'll understand that all three of my boys (including my husband) need a Snickers bar at some point during the hog show.

Crisis Averted: Anyone who knows my crew knows they're not very organized, which is why we have a list of things we need to bring to a show. We were walking out the door for the 2012 World Pork Expo, and I happened to bring up the list. Everyone informed me they had gone through the check-list. So I asked them if they had the feeders. uh-oh! Do you have a squirt bottle? uh-oh! Do you have a hose? uh-oh! Needless to say, we went back to the barn to go over the list and finish packing.

Trailer Driving Prowess: My trailer driving is best described as "get out of my way." I am much better at driving forward than backward. But I have driven a trailer alone with two kids through the Rocky Mountains, the Appalachian Mountains and about a half dozen tornados, so maybe it should be "bring it on."

"Show Mom" Tip of the Month: Always remember, it is just a hog show. And bring plenty of Snickers bars - you're are going to need them!

It is always a pleasure to have the chance to enjoy good hogs and great hospitality in Perry, Ga., and this year's Winter Type Conference was certainly no different. While the mornings and evenings were plenty cool, the enthusiasm that all of the young kids brought with them made you forget the weather pretty quick. All in all, it was a very good Southeast Regional that was enjoyed by all.

This year's Duroc show was judged by Bret Goff, Ind. Thank you, Bret, for your tremendous comments throughout the show. You did a very professional and thorough job of sorting a good set of red hogs.

The Champion Duroc Boar was exhibited by the David Martin Family of Iowa. This son of Headliner was really big bodied and could flat go. He was extremely sound and had tremendous dimension from end to end. Those that have been to Perry know that we show on Astroturf, and that it is not a very forgiving surface. This hog floated across the turf and had plenty of power and dimension. RAR Genetics took this popular champion back to Aplington, Iowa, and I am sure he will have lots of friends.

The Reserve Champion Boar was shown by Guy Jackson and Mike Johnson of Warren, Ind.. He was a son of Big Buck and looked a lot like his daddy. Big-ribbed and huge-bladed, this stout-featured hog offered lots of dimension and stoutness in a very correct and well-designed package. He sold to Shaffer's Goldrush and will get a chance to work alongside a tremendous set of red boars already assembled in Albany, Ind.

Dan's Durocs of Manito, Ill., was next in the ring with what I thought was one of the really attractive power hogs in the show. This son of Big Ten had plenty of extension and was extremely athletic in his movement. He looked like a boar and acted like one too. RAR Genetics continued to add strength to an already potent set of boars at home by purchasing this one. Thanks, Rick and Ryan.

Rick Fogle of Isla Grande Farms was next in the ring with a pair of Ice sons. The younger boar was as tall fronted and good designed as any hog we have seen in quite some time. He was incredibly good on his feet and legs and balanced very well. Oliver Farms kept this one in Georgia, and if I was a betting man, I'd say we will see sons and daughters of this one next year.

The other Isla Grande hog had tremendous bone work and stoutness of feature. He was another big hog in his dimension and was ready to go to work. Critter Hill Farm of Illinois will give him a shot.

Kyle and Stephanie Banks were next in the ring with another Ice son. This one had tremendous bone work and was massive in his build. One of the stouter-skulled, bigger-ribbed hogs in the whole show – this one will get a chance for Tony Nye and Breeder's Choice Boar Stud in Ohio.

Bill Range drove in a pair of littermates next. They were sons of Crown Royal, who needs no introduction to the red industry. The top-selling boar of the Duroc sale had tremendous shape and looked like he could make red barrows all day long. Harold and Justin Terry of Oregon will get a chance to make a name for this one – thanks, guys!

A really productive and quality set of females sold next. Leading off the sale was the champion shown by Adam and Tyler Gradert of Geneseo, Ill. This Champion Duroc Female was extremely big in her skeleton and tall fronted. She had a tremendous rib cage and could flat go. It's hard to make hogs this big and productive that can still function properly, but this one did very well. Garrett See added her to his sow herd in North Carolina, and I'm guessing this long-time Duroc family will get lots of good out of this productive-looking female.

Chelsey Ammann was next in the ring with the Reserve Champion Open Gilt sired by Gator. Another female with lots of body and a solid and productive look – she was extremely flexible and loose in her makeup, while having an attractive heads-up look. She sold to JP Enterprises and Dave Guyer, Ill.

Maddie Fugate was next in the ring with her Reserve Champion Duroc Gilt from the junior show. I liked this one a lot. She looked like the kind that could make breeding hogs or class-winning barrows. She set her feet square on the corners and had plenty of power along with a flexible-working skeleton. Congratulations to the Fugate family on a great job!

Chelsey Ammann was in next with another class-winning female sired by Gator. Much like her reserve, this female was sound, productive and extra big in her skeleton. Riley Stringer will give her a new home and a fair chance.

Chloe Studebaker was in next with her class-winner sired by Rib Crib. This one was really interesting because she was long bodied, flexible and loose in her makeup. She set them square on the corners and maintained a really feminine look. She sold to Clint Parker of Butcher, Ga.

Chloe had a littermate to this gilt that sold on down the line that was the top-selling Duroc gilt in the sale. She offered a little more power and boldness, while still maintaining the same skeletal build as her class-winning sister. Adam Beck made a great purchase and will give this one a fair chance in Indiana. Thanks Adam!

David Martin was in next with a pair of gilts that are typical of DCM females. They were super sound and had a productive look to them. These gilts will make good females for their new owners and will be around for a long time as well.

Thank you to Kevin Wendt for the professional job selling purebred hogs, as always. A special thanks to the whole crew with the fairgrounds in Perry. You guys make it easy to have a hog show! Thanks to all the junior exhibitors for giving us a reason to do what we all like to do – show hogs and enjoy the company of one another. You are why so many of us do what we do on a day-to-day basis!

From the Field

by Ralph Doak, NSR Field Representative

The great hospitality and warmer weather that we always find in Perry, Ga., makes the Winter Type Conference and the NJSA Southeast Regional two of my favorites for the year.

The folks at the Georgia National Fairgrounds always have things in order and are ready with their great facility and even better hospitality.

This year our judge was Aimee Inskeep of Albany, Ind. Aimee has always had a great ability to see livestock. She came up through the ranks of the NJSA and served as president of the NJSA Junior Board. After graduating from Purdue University, she went back home to Shaffer's Goldrush. Thanks to Aimee for a very professional job.

Saturday evening, the event was turned over to Col. Kevin Wendt of Irwin, Ohio, and he found new homes for this good set of Hampshire hogs.

The Premier Sire award went to FUNK2 GRUS Wimbledon 7-3, owned by Shaffer's Goldrush. The Reserve Premier Sire was TSOBO GRUS Capital Investment owned by Peters Hamps & Show Pigs, Diehm Family and Shaffer's Goldrush, all of Indiana.

This year the Grand Champion Hampshire Boar was shown by Stewart's Duroc Farm of Waverly, Iowa. Doug's boar was big boned and footed with lots of structure. He carried his head high and had a shapely, level top. This boar had the look and width of chest to make a sire. He was a CDO0 Point Taken 257-3 son and out of a EC8 Titleist 122-6 sow. His new home is with the Fecke Family of Bonfield, Ill., and Heimer Hampshires of Taylor, Mo. This one should do a nice job. He sold for $15,000, and could be quite a bargain.

The Reserve Champion Boar honors went to George and Mike Watson of Mooresville, Ind. He was a very well-balanced, level-made hog with good muscle. Ricky Lyons of Mayo, Fla., bought a nice herdsire prospect here.

The boar from Kilmer Swine Farm of Monticello, Ind., was in the ring next. This guy was an attractive-fronted, long, level, neat hog. Ricky Lyons made his second purchase of the day and got a really good boar.

March 2013

Another boar that I liked came from Emily and Morgan Russell of Peken, Ind. An extra wide-made, big-topped, big-hipped boar that certainly could add muscle and a showpig look to his offspring. Santaro Swine Farm of Lowellville, Ohio, will make some really good hogs with him and make him available to others. He's a boar that is certainly worth sampling. He is a good one.

The first gilt in the ring was the champion from the junior show. She was consigned by Tate Coulter of Albany, Ind. Tate's gilt was sired by FUNK1 GRUS Wimbledon 7-3 and out of a daughter of DPK7 GRUS Sun Tea 30-3. The breeder of this gilt was Shaffer's Goldrush of Albany, Ind. Her new home is Peters Hamps and Showpigs of Columbus, Ind.

The Grand Champion Gilt was exhibited by Sydney Cain of Chariton, Iowa. This great female was wide sprung, deep bodied and had a great hip and rump. Ryan Rubick of Pomona, Kan., made a great buy here. She looks like a sow.

The Reserve Champion Gilt was shown by Tana Simmons of Idaville, Ind. This gilt was truly feminine about her head, but still had lots of muscle, shape and boldness to her rib. This gilt has a lot brood sow potential and should work well for junior members Emily and Morgan Russell of Peken, Ind.

A daughter of TSOBO GRUS Capital Investment now had her turn in the auction ring. She was shown by Savannah Leigh Page of Jefferson, Ga. An extremely well-balanced gilt with lots of shape and design – she could go all day and really had the back that it takes to make females or maybe even a boar or barrow. Quad II Farms of Greenville, Pa., made a nice purchase here.

One of the biggest-ribbed, biggest-centered gilts in the entire barn was next. Exhibited by Maddie Fugate of Mahomet, Ill., this lady had structure and mass to burn. She was purchased by Mike Watson and Jerry McLemore. Nice buy here.

We need more good hogs to fill the growing demand in Perry, Ga. Make your plans, take care of your business and 2014 will be even better.

PIG. Without papers, it's just another PIG.

A performance pedigree is more than a piece of paper – it's your word. It says your breeding stock is a superior product backed by superior genetics and predictable performance.

It sets purebred producers apart from those who pass common, ordinary pigs off as breeding stock. And, a pedigree is something else. It's the lifeblood of an entire industry, making it possible for you to have the leadership, research, programs, services and support you've come to expect from the National Swine Registry.

So, if you're raising and selling purebreds, you owe it to yourself to register every litter. If you purchase seedstock for your commercial operation, you owe it to yourself to ask for the performance pedigree. Why not take advantage of more than 100 years of genetic selection and performance documentation?

Get the pedigree.

From the Field

by Michael Lackey, NSR Field Representative

The Premier Yorkshire Sire for the 2013 Winter Type Conference was awarded to JM1 Exclusive 14-4, owned by Real McCoy Genetics of Bloomingburg, Ohio. The Reserve Premier Sire was awarded to TBRO1 Banchee 60-3 owned by Thompson Brothers Genetics of Pleasantville, Ohio. There was an impressive set of hogs out of these boars. Congratulations to both firms.

Garry Childs of Pelham, Ga., had the task of lining up the show and sale order this year at the Winter Type Conference. He was assisted by Brett Wheeler of Florida. Garry and Brett sorted the hogs in a brisk and efficient manner and had many positive comments to give to the crowd that gathered to watch the show. Thank you, both, for your time and comments – great job, gentlemen!

The Grand Champion Yorkshire Boar was the entry that won the second class of the day. This son of ARK1 Final Drive 130-10 is powerful; he's wide in his chest, big centered, wide based and has a barrow-sire look. He is stout headed, above average in terms of bone and has a ton of muscle shape. Plus, his litter was extremely competitive at this show. A littermate sister was Reserve Champion Yorkshire Gilt, and a brother was Reserve Grand Champion Barrow Overall in the NJSA Southeast Regional portion of the show. Congratulations to Ken and Garrett Cole of Middletown, Ind., on their winning entry. Crossroads Genetics, Robin Ridge Farms and Jack Rodibaugh and Sons, all of Indiana, partnered on this boar for $17,000 to make him the top-selling boar at the 2013 Winter Type Conference.

The Reserve Champion Boar was one of the most complete boars to hit the ring. This entry from Isla Grande Farms of Marion, Ohio, won the youngest class of the day. He is also a son of ARK1 Final Drive 130-10 and is very correct, balanced, heavy muscled and bold in his rib cage. He is also sound on his feet and legs, stout boned and rugged. He sold to Frank Morgan, Jr., of Vienna, Ga., for $1,250.

The winning entry from the oldest class was next in the ring, exhibited by Aimee Inskeep and Lynsee Pullen, of Albany, Ind. This son of TPSP0 GRUS Platt Attack 26-1 is captivating from a design standpoint. He's elevated at the top of his shoulder, level designed and long fronted. He's wide chested and square at the base of his chest floor and has a big, expressive top. He sold to Morgan Anderson of Fitzgerald, Ga., for $600.

The next boar in the ring stood second to the champion in Class 2. He is sired by WGW1 Sponge Bob 80-6. This guy is correct in his toes, good boned, sound as a cat and reads with a great deal of breeding value. Thank you to Sharrett Family Farms of Sabina, Ohio, for letting this guy go. He was a great buy for Steve and Derek Earnhart of Albion, Ind., at the price of $700.

The gilt show ran deep with quality and was enjoyable to watch this year. The gilt that found her way to the ring first was a special lady from a firm that has been producing several winners this past year. Congratulations to Randal and Terrell Buck of Eufaula, Okla., on your 2013 WTC Grand Champion Yorksire Female. She is sired by TBRO0 Starbuck 45-3. These kind are hard to make and even harder to let go. She looks like a Yorkshire brood sow should. She is stout headed, big and even in her toes, square built underneath and has a big, soft rib cage. She is sound and functional on her feet and legs and has a great underline. She made her way home with Dave Guyer and Family and JP Enterprises for $6,000.

The Reserve Champion Gilt in the open show was an entry from Skylar Knapp of Greenfield, Ind. This daughter of ARK1 Final Drive 130-10 is a littermate to the Champion Boar. She is powerfully constructed at the ground, has a big, soft rib and is great in terms of balance and design. This sound-moving, wide-hipped brood sow prospect will make her way to Camby, Ind., with Adam Beck and Family for the price of $2,000.

Shows & Sales

Thompson Brothers Genetics of Pleasantville, Ohio, hit the ring next with their Class 2 winning entry. Broc's gilt is sired by TBRO1 Banchee 60-3. This lady is powerful in terms of muscle, bone and rib shape. She is big toed, square and wide at her knee with a big hip. Stephen Cordle of Live Oak, Fla., paid $800 to take her home.

Kayla Bennington was up next with her winning entry from the oldest class of the day. This daughter of TBRO0 Power Fuel 38-3 looks like a potential brood sow. She is stout headed, big footed and has a great shape to her rib. She is sound on her feet and legs with a great underline. She sold to Pool Brothers, Inc., of Wrightsville, Ga., for $800.

Lucas Craycraft of Leesburg, Ohio, drove the winning entry from Class 4 to the sales ring next. This daughter of JM1 Exclusive 14-4 is wide made, soft middled and very functional in her design. Ron McLoon of Hazlehurst, Ga., paid $1,600 to take her home.

The gilt that won the youngest class of the day was exhibited by Lindsay Daulton of Springfield, Ohio. This stout-made, feminine-designed gilt is sire by WGW9 Moonshine 72-4, and sold to Chris Vogel of North Fairfield, Ohio, for $600.

Kevin Wendt, thank you, for a job well done on the block. This event is not an easy task to pull off – it takes a lot of help from a lot of people. Thanks to all of you! I wish you all the best of luck with your spring sale season. See you in Belton.

From the Field

by Ralph Doak, NSR Field Representative

The 2013 Winter Type Conference Crossbred sale opened up with the Champion Crossbred Boar from Aimee Inskip and Lynsee Pullen of Albany, Ind. He was a son of Big Alias and out of a Major Time sow. This boar was a heavy structured, really good-footed boar, with a good rear end and a big, grooved top. He has a new home with Holt Showpigs of Archer, Fla. He will make it easy to sell, competitive hogs for his new owner at $1,200.

The Catalyst son from George and Mike Watson of Mooresville, Ind., was named Reserve Champion Crossbred Boar. He was a unique blend of structure, muscle and mass. Stephen Cordle of Five Oak, Fla., will be on a lot faster track when he gets pigs by this good, young potential herd sire. He was the top-selling boar of the crossbred show for $1,700.

The younger of the two Shaffer boars was in the ring next. He was really lean and active. This guy was sired by Mile High and out of an Intoxicated sow. He has a new home at Olin Thrift's farm in Folkston, Ga., at $1,100.

When you think of Kilmers you always think of muscle, and that is what you get with their Super Monster son. Kilmer Swine Farm of Monticello, Ind., did not plan on coming to the ring fourth with this guy. Phil Page of Jefferson, Ga., made a good buy here.

A very unique boar was in next from Sharrett Family Farms of Sabina, Ohio. He was the smaller-statured boar that had a huge center body, a big, wide top, a neat head carriage and was really sound structured. Libby Johnson got a interesting change here for $900. She took him back to Bloomingburg, Ohio.

The Champion Crossbred Gilt was shown this year by Jarvis Simmons of Bringhurst, Ind. She was sired by Papa Smurf and featured some outstanding traits. This gilt was really sound footed, level made and big ribbed with plenty of muscle. She has a new home at Emil Page Lyons, Jr., of Glen St. Mary, Fla., for $1,000.

Lindsay Daulton of Springfield, Ohio, was the exhibitor of the Reserve Champion Gilt. Here was a really correct gilt that was super-good footed and really sound on her feet and legs. She was a gilt that looked like a sow, yet had plenty of muscle. Chloe Studebaker of Eaton, Ohio, made a nice buy on this one.

One of my favorite barrow-makers was in the ring next from Gracee Stewart of Sabina, Ohio. She was a young gilt, farrowed Aug. 22. This lady was really square with her legs on the corners. She had a big, grooved top and a high head carriage. James Horton of Jamesboro, Texas, got a nice one here.

The judge for the crossbred show was Kevin Wendt of Irwin, Ohio, and I hope those folks in the stands at Perry listened to the descriptions of the hogs and Kevin's reasons for placing the hogs as he did. It was not an easy show to judge, and in my opinion, he did a great job.

Thanks to Kevin Wendt for a good job judging and, as always, a great job of selling all the hogs at the Winter Type Conference.

Who America's Premier Youth Livestock Magazine since 1980 serving the Youth and those involved with the Junior Livestock Show Industry. With no added costs we'll advertise your cattle, goats, hogs, lambs, show supplies, feed or trailers - whatever you have to sell we'll get the word out to bring in the buyers. Besides our magazine we can also put together your brochures.
Give us a call for all your advertising needs
 806.499.3749.

What

When 24 hours a day / 7 days a week - 365 days a year since 1980 - on the internet and in our publication.

Where Nationwide with subscribers in 45 states,
 Canada and Mexico.
Free distribution to all major livestock shows, numerous state fairs and dozens of jackpots and sales.

Why Because you want to spend your hard earned advertising dollars with the BEST! It's a smart move to advertise with the Purple Circle - we get the job done for the best prices! The Purple Circle serves as a showcase, a public arena, from which people from coast to coast can promote their livestock and products and to acknowledge 4-H and FFA exhibitors from other areas of the Country.
You'll also keep up to date with the latest trends and find what you are looking for by subscribing to Purple Circle.

WW-Paul Livestock Scales

Proud sponsor of the NISA

Model 58SX
500-lb. single animal
livestock scale

The new and improved WW-Paul Scale Model 58SX includes the new side slide, bi-fold gate design for faster and easier operation. The Model 58SX is easily retrofitted with an electronic cell, readout indicator and ticket or tape printer, if desired. Heavy-duty construction guarantees an accurate and dependable livestock scale.

Hog & Sheep
pens

All hog and sheep components are constructed from A-513 high-tensile steel tubing. Framework is fabricated from 1 1/2", 14-gauge tubing, and interior vertical rails are built from 1 1/2", 16-gauge tubing. All joints are saddle cut for extra strength. Gate frame is 72" tall and panels are available in 41" or 48" heights. All units have powder coat finish.

Call for name of nearest dealer.

RULES & REGULATIONS
Enter online at: www.nationalswine.com

RULES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE • For up-to-date rules & regulations visit our website at www.nationalswine.com

General Information

1. Entries limited to a maximum of six head per exhibitor.
2. Recommended farrowing date range for project pigs is Jan. 1 and after (any age for prospective club pigs will qualify for this sale).
3. All purebred weanling pigs that show in the purebred class must have a pedigree that accompanies each entry or they will show as a crossbred. Purebred pedigrees will be transferred to buyers by respective breed associations. All pigs must be ear notched. Pigs must be registered by April 12, 2013, or they will be charged a $25 rush fee.
4. Barrows, boars or gilts are eligible. Barrows and boars may be exhibited in separate classes, depending on the number of entries. Gilts will be shown in separate classes.
5. A minimum of 50 percent of the pigs shown per breed will be selected for the sale.
6. Weanling pigs must be entered prior to the show, and entries must be postmarked by March 21, 2013.
7. Weanling pig entry fees are $30. All late entries will be charged double the regular entry fee. The NSR reserves the right to reject any or all entries postmarked after noted entry date.
8. Entire entry fee must accompany all entry forms. No refunds.
9. Sale commission will be 15 percent.
10. Settlement will be made with the exhibitors about 30 days following the sale. In case of non-payment and/or insufficient funds by the buyer, settlement with the seller will be delayed until collection is secured. If an exhibitor has an NSR account that is past due, funds from the sale of their animals will be applied to their past-due account.
11. This event is sponsored by, and will be managed by, the NSR #AC303D000727.
12. Exhibitors must be an active member (junior or senior) of the National Swine Registry or they will be charged a $75 exhibitor fee.
13. The NSR will make all penning assignments.

Health Regulations

An interstate health certificate of veterinary inspection from state of origin, issued by a licensed accredited veterinarian, must accompany each animal. All animals may be listed on one health certificate.

The original health certificate must accompany shipment, and two copies of the original certificate must be supplied for each animal. Each certificate must show: Name and address of consignor, and be assigned to National Swine Extravaganza, Wayne County Youth Center, 861 Salisbury Road N., Richmond, IN 47374; individual identification of animal is required (ear notches are acceptable for purebred animals, but federally approved ear tags and ear notches are required for all crossbred animals). Certificates must be issued after March 26, 2013. Certificates do not need prior state approval, but must use permit number B130424.

Certificate Requirements

1. Since all states are Stage 5 of the Pseudorabies (PRV) eradication program, no testing is required for this show. If the animals come from a Pseudorabies qualified herd and from a Brucellosis validated herd, it is required that these numbers and the last test dates appear on the health certificate.
2. All health certificates must carry the statements: No raw garbage fed, and herd is not under quarantine for any disease condition and uses no Pseudorabies vaccine.
3. Remember, an original interstate health certificate must accompany each shipment, and each pig must have two copies of the original health certificate.
4. It is recommended that all pigs be vaccinated for mycoplasma, circovirus and swine influenza. Two injections given at least two weeks apart is preferred. These products are available commercially from several vaccine companies. This is not a sale requirement.
5. Address any health questions to Brian Arnold, NSR, 765.463.3594 or the official show veterinarian, Dr. Dale Hendrickson, 765.468.6099.
6. A premises ID number is required on your health papers.
7. Please list your veterinarian's cell phone number on the health certificate.

RULES & REGULATIONS

General Information

Entry fees for all entries must accompany the entry form and all late entries will be charged double the regular entry fees. The NSR reserves the right to close entries any time after the printed entry deadline. All entry fees are non-refundable. Entries must be postmarked by April 26, 2013.

All hogs entered at the WPX must have been owned by April 6, 2013, by the exhibitor.

CROSSBRED BOARS: Stress status of your entry will be placed in the show and sale catalog (this is a show and sale requirement). A documented stress test must be presented at check-in.

All entries must be ear notched using the official NSR system (Starting with litter No. 1 in January and again in July each year). All entries must be recorded by May 20, 2013. After that date, exhibitors will be charged a rush fee. All exhibitors must be active junior or senior NSR members.

No entry or substitute entry will be allowed to show or sell without a registration certificate. Entries will be divided into classes by farrowing date. All hogs must be at the fairgrounds by 8 a.m., Thursday, June 6, 2013.

No clipping is allowed in the barns.

Exhibitors & Eligibility

Exhibitors must be an active member of NSR, or they will be required to pay the $75 NSR maintenance fee.

Entries are limited to four purebred boars (Duroc, Hampshire, Landrace, Yorkshire), four purebred open gilts (Duroc, Hampshire, Landrace, Yorkshire), two crossbred boars and two crossbred gilts per exhibitor. All entries must meet their respective breed requirements, or they will not be allowed to show or sell at the conference. All entries must be farrowed on or after Nov. 1, 2012, and must have at least six teats on each side.

Breeding Animal Sale

A minimum of 60 percent of the number of each sex (boars and gilts) shown will be selected for the sale. These animals will be selected with no set number selling from any single class. Animals not selected for the sale can be consigned to the sale for an additional fee of $20 per head. If the animal sells, the fee will be applied toward the sale commission. If the animal does not sell, the fee is forfeited.

All animals selected and cataloged for the sale must go through the auction. Sale commission will be 15 percent for all animals. If an animal that is selected and cataloged for the sale does not go through the sale ring, the exhibitor will be banned from exhibiting at NSR events for one year and will be charged 15% of the average selling price of their respective breed sale. This amount must be paid before reinstatement will be allowed. The exception to this rule will be if the animal has become injured or ill and the animal is inspected by a NSR staff member prior to the sale.

The NSR acts only as the agent between the buyer and seller. If proper payment is made by the buyer in a timely manner, the NSR will make settlement with the seller in approximately 30 days after the sale.

If an exhibitor has an account that is past due, funds from the sale of their animals will be applied to their NSR account.

Special Breed Requirements

By entering any animal in this conference, the owner warrants that the animal meets special breed requirements.

Such warranty is, however, solely that of the seller and not that of the American Landrace Association, American Yorkshire Club, Hampshire Swine Registry or United Duroc Swine Registry, and the ALA, AYC, HSR, and UDSR assume no responsibility or liability in connection with such warranty by the seller.

If any animal sold at this conference is found to be a carrier of the color gene after being tested through the procedures approved by the HSR, UDSR, ALA and AYC, the seller agrees that he will promptly refund the full purchase price to the buyer.

There will be no refund of NSR commission from animals that are carriers of the color gene.

DNA Stress Statement

No known stress positive or stress-carrier Duroc, Hampshire, Landrace or Yorkshire animals will be allowed to be exhibited or sold at any NSR-sponsored event.

Such warranty is, however, solely that of the seller and not that of the American Landrace Association, American Yorkshire Club, Hampshire Swine Registry or United Duroc Swine Registry.

The American Landrace Association, American Yorkshire Club, Hampshire Swine Registry and United Duroc Swine Registry assume no responsibility or liability in connection with such warranty by the seller.

If any purebred animal sold at this conference is found to be a carrier of the stress gene, the purchaser has the right to receive full refund of the purchase price from the seller.

DNA testing for the stress gene must be done within 60 days of the sale date and all costs associated with the testing for the stress gene must be paid by the purchaser. The seller has the right to review the test results and the right to re-test the animal at a laboratory of his choice.

Cost associated with re-test by the seller is at the seller's expense. There will be no refund of NSR commission from stress-carrier animals.

Health Regulations

1. Each hog must be accompanied by TWO COPIES of an official interstate health certificate issued by a licensed, accredited vet. Certificate must show name and address of consignor; consigned to the World Pork Expo, Iowa State Fairgrounds, East 30th Street and University Ave., Des Moines, Iowa, 50317; official identification of animal; and health status of animal including the dates of required tests and vaccinations. All swine must have individual health certificates and a duplicate of each certificate. Remember, only one animal per health certificate. Crossbred animals must be identified by a federally recognized numbered ear tag.

2. All certificates must be issued after May 10, 2013, with the following information:

A. PSEUDORABIES: All animals must be tested for PRV after May 10, 2013. Animals must test PRV-negative with all results on the dated certificate. You must have the official test chart along with your certificate of veterinary inspection.

Either the Elisa, ALA or S/N tests are acceptable. Differentiated Elisa Test will NOT be accepted.

B. BRUCELLOSIS: All animals must originate from a Brucellosis Class "Free" state or be from a validated brucellosis free herd with the validation herd number and a date of last test on the certificate or be negative tested for brucellosis after May 10, 2013, and test date written on the certificate.

C. All breeding swine coming to the show MUST be vaccinated against leptospirosis (6-way) including bratislava and erysipelas. The complete date of vaccination MUST be listed on the health certificate. Market animals should not be vaccinated.

D. It is strongly recommended that breeding animals are vaccinated for swine influenza.

E. All health certificates must carry the following statements: farm or origin of the swine has not had pseudorabies or swine dysentery in the past 12 months, has not had TGE in the past 60 days, feeds no garbage, uses no PRV vaccine, and is not under quarantine for any disease condition; also that vesicular stomatitis has not been diagnosed within 10 miles of the farm of origin within the past 30 days.

F. A permit number is not required to move animals into the World Pork Expo.

REMEMBER:

- Your driver's license number must be included on your health papers.
 - A premises ID number will be required to exhibit.
 - Please list your veterinarian's cell phone number on the health certificate
- Visit www.nationalswine.com for more information

JUST SOME OF THE ELITE BOARS USED.

ROYAL FLUSH

Has one of the most correct hip and hind legs in the breed. You will be excited to see these pigs.

HIT & RUN

We partnered with A Cut Above Boar Stud on this boar. He was the Reserve Grand Champion Yorkshire at the 2012 Indiana State Fair out of the legendary Grizz. One of the last new Grizz sons available to use. If you want Yorkshire pigs with no pastern issues, correct hocks and square to ground, you must see our Yorkshire pigs.

HE-MAN

Reserve Grand Champion Crossbred Boar at 2012 Indiana State Fair. Pigs out of He-Man are flat awesome. Come and view!

BONE DADDY

Reserve Grand Champion Crossbred Boar at the Southwest Type Conference, Belton, Texas. Wow, the pigs out of this boar are tremendous!

WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO HELPING OUR PAST AND FUTURE CUSTOMERS WITH THE OFFERING OF THESE PIGS.

PSSS Initial Shock x Shaffer's Gateway

- » This boar is truly a unique breeding piece. He hits the surface with a tremendous amount of bone and foot and is still wide and shapely up high. Also, he has a cocky "heads up" boar attitude and a great appetite. We expect him to generate showpigs and breeding stock alike.

durocs

Res. Grand Champion & Champion
Duroc Female, 2012 NSR Fall Classic

Thank you to Next Level & Fischbacher, Texas, for their $6,500 purchase. Daughter of Crown Royal's dam.

Could be the best one we've ever raised! With Crown Royal & Triple Rock, you've got the best of both worlds. His mother is one of the best Triple Rock daughters born last spring. March 15 was a great day – our granddaughter, Brennen, was born 10:03 p.m., and I got back to the farrowing house at 11:06 p.m. to see the 28-litter had arrived. Great day! Great boar! Great litter!

MM Bren 28-8

Crown Royal x 16-8 Triple Rock

Limited Semen: $200

We sold three of Bren's littermate brothers in Austin. RAR Genetics, Dave Martin and Dan's Durocs purchased the 2012 Hog College® Boar. 28-9 sold to Chuck and Ben Olsen, and 28-6 went to the Tom Kurtenbach family. There is power in the genetics – the first pigs look great!

NEW!

MM Elmo

Godfather 8-1 (God's Gift x Freak Show) X Full Shift
Semen Available: $100

This boar has done a super job. He produced the Champion Duroc at the 2012 Okla. State Fair and a class winner at the 2012 Tulsa State Fair.

Dec.-May pigs for sale off-the-farm

Look for our pigs at:

- Online Sales

MM Red Monster

Crown Royal x 2-7 Triple Crown
Semen Available: $150

Son back on his mother. This boar is a power house! Littermate to Lean Value's Royal One, he was our pick of this litter. This boar hurt his hip the first part of July, but now we have him going again.

NEW!

Broek Swine Genetics

Raising quality stock for generations

For more than 75 years, our family has worked together to raise purebred breeding stock and showpigs. Four generations have strived to improve the Hampshire, Yorkshire, Duroc and Berkshire breeds, while raising elite crossbreds.

Thanks to everyone for another successful year in the sale and show rings. We look forward to serving you in 2013 with the same honesty and integrity our customers have come to expect throughout the last 75 years.

A huge thank you for the many positive comments and the contending bidders of this great boar. We are truly honored and humbled not only for the award, but because we know the real dedication and effort it takes to make them better. HeMan comes out of the heartbeat of our sow herd and as described by judge Ben Moyer, "a real HeMan of the boar show." Thank you to Ryan Stohlquist for purchasing HeMan. He is sure to generate across a great set of sows.

The ANSWER

(EQUATION X BUCK CHERRY)

Thanks to Travis and Sam for buying this once in a lifetime Duroc Boar.

This boar is the real deal! Michel Showpigs would like to thank Upperhand Genetics for purchasing this boar off the farm. This boar's mother is from Brandon Ogle and was our pick at his spring 2011 sale. She is a sister to Cherry Bomb, Champion and Reserve Duroc Barrow 2011 WPX, Grand Champion Gilt 2012 San Antonio, Grand Champion Gilt 2012 Houston and also a littermate sister to the mother of Royal Flush.

Watch our facebook page for up-to-the-minute spring sale information!

"The exposure Showpig.com brings our operation is unmatched. We have the ability to reach a large number of customers from across the country through our online auctions and banner ads."

Hi Point Genetics

"The online traffic and exposure of our pigs through Showpig.com is unbeatable in this industry. Showpig.com allows us an opportunity to expand the geography of our marketplace that barn traffic alone cannot accomplish. We have gained friends in the industry through Showpig.com that otherwise we may have never met."

Diamond V Showpigs

"Selling online with Showpig.com has expanded our market place and allowed us to sell show pigs from coast to coast."

Steve Cobb & Family

"Showpig.com provides great service from the start to finish of our online sales. Information is posted accurately and timely! Sales are promoted excellent through e-blasts, print and banners! Most important, there are no worries on sale day and in the closing out of sales!"

Tom Moyer & Family

"The staff at Showpig.com has always been top notch to work with. We appreciate their professionalism, responsiveness and the fact that they know our industry. We've been very pleased with the partnership!"

WinMor Farms

"The best part about working with Showpig.com is working with the professional and experienced people that not only know marketing but also know and understand livestock and that is a huge advantage when communicating and sending information in."

Conover Showpigs

"Showpig.com has been extremely professional, easy, and enjoyable to work with. By advertising and selling show pigs on Showpig.com we are able to reach customers across the United States. The online auction website is easily accessible and fast. It is also easy for our customers to purchase our hogs that may not be able to make it to the farm due to travel and time restraints."

Shaffer's Gold Rush

"We have been fortunate enough to work with Showpig.com for several years now and have expanded our showpig sales beyond our expectations due to online sales. Through Showpig.com we can reach families from across the nation that we normally would not be able to. The professionalism, customer service and ease of the buying & selling process have made Showpig.com our first choice in online sales!"

Triple L Showpigs

"Showpig.com has proven to be the industry leader in online showpig sales. It is the most proven user friendly product available. We have formed countless new relationships with new customers that we would have never reached without Showpig.com's services. We look forward to working with Showpig.com exclusively as our online auctions agent and continuing to form relationships with new showpig customers through their services."

LABOR OF LOVE.

Pork producers across the country are dedicated to responsible pork production: doing what's right for the animals, the environment, the community, and food safety. We live where we work. Our families breathe the air. We drink the water. We have a long-standing commitment to responsible practices that embraces continuous improvement to the quality of our product and our use of resources. We know better than anyone that our efforts not only impact a hungry world, they affect those near and dear.

You be the judge.

The fourth edition of the NSR swine judging DVD is ready for your evaluation. This DVD is ideal for agriculture departments, 4-H livestock groups, FFA chapters or personal use. Designed to educate young people in performance traits, EPDs, indexes and swine evaluation, this DVD is for the beginner, but is challenging enough for the collegiate undergraduate as well.

The Prequel

By Jen Gillespie

Steve Cobb & Family

Steve Cobb's story began in rural northeast Arkansas, where cotton is king and his family had the only hog farm in the county. His dad had a handful of commercial sows, as well as a small cow-calf operation, but the livestock was secondary to the family's crop production. So while his dad was busy planting and harvesting cotton, it became Cobb's responsibility to take care of the pigs.

"I couldn't wait to get out of school and get to the barn to check if we had any new litters," Cobb says. "My interest was always in the livestock."

Recognizing his son's innate interest in pigs, Cobb's dad offered to buy him a pair of registered Hampshire gilts to get started in the purebred industry. But Cobb had a different idea - he wanted Yorkshires.

"My dad didn't know, but in a general farm magazine, I had found a clipping that I sent off to the American Yorkshire Club and got a subscription to the Yorkshire Journal. I always knew about the time the magazine was supposed to get here, and I would run to the mail every day," Cobb recalls. "I basically read it cover to cover. Anyone whose name would have been mentioned in those articles, or anyone who had an ad of any kind - if they were prominent enough to have an ad in the Yorkshire Journal - to me, they were big time breeders."

Cobb got his Yorkshire gilts, but they weren't like the ones in his magazine - and that became more apparent with each litter. So when Cobb was in the 8th grade, his older brother, Roland, agreed to take him to any sale he wanted to buy new, better gilts. But on the morning of Jan. 5 - the day of the sale - Roland was nowhere to be found. As fate would have it, he had to help a neighbor with some last-minute harvesting. But as luck would have it, the consolation trip Cobb made with his brother just a few weeks later would mark the beginning of his influence in the purebred industry.

"My brother came to the house and said to me, 'I know you're down, but I've been reading in your magazine at mom and dad's, and on the 20th of January in Columbia, Mo., they're having something called a Type Conference. It says they're going to be breeders there from all over the country ... I'd like to take you to that.' So, because I didn't get to go to that sale, one of my first ventures was to the 1971 Winter Type Conference in Columbia, Mo. - and I was hooked."

From that day, Cobb traveled to various farms and met people who became his mentors and friends in the swine industry - people like Claude Robinson, Homer Jenkins, Ruben Edwards, Roland "Pig" Paul, Glenn Conaster, Ernie Barnes, Jim Rutter, Jack Rodibaugh, Denny Shoup, Evertt Forkner, Dr. Gordon Jones and various Yorkshire fieldmen.

"The older I've gotten - as I've watched my children and grandchildren do this - I am convinced that we're all born with yearnings or certain things that we're driven to," says Cobb. And for him, that was raising Yorkshire hogs.

A quick glimpse into how some of our industry's premier producers got their start in the purebred swine business.

ARK... PRODUCING A WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE!!!

A sincere congratulations to Holly Head for her first Major win with this tremendous individual. We are very proud of Holly and the entire Head family for putting the extra work and effort that it takes to win at this level into this project. Also, a HUGE THANK YOU to Extension Agent Allen Davis for his influence with this one. Judge Brian Arnold stated in the championship drive at NAILE "this one exemplifies balance." We find "balance" at the end of the day is what helps us create more wonderful experiences for more families than any extreme traits.
